

Black Sea of Agony

Into Eternity

A black sea of agony
The Skies are blackening
What was will never be Sent out into the sea
My sails won't carry me
Lack of worth is all I know
This guilt out of control
The ocean crashes down again
A black sea drowning me
I close my eyes and pray for the end
Pray for the end
A black sea of agony
Wind blows out of control
Unrelated unrelenting
Alone I drift off again
Diminishing the pain
Take away my sanity
This vessels shielding all I see
Block out all the thoughts of inner rage
Protect me from myself
I close my eyes and pray for the end
Pray for the end
A black sea of agony
Impassable
Screaming
Impassable
Visionless
Screaming in oblivion
A black sea of agony
Impassable
Screaming
Impassable
Visionless
Impassable screaming in oblivion
I close my eyes
and pray for the end
