Bittersweet

Within Temptation

If I tell you
Will you listen, will you stay?
Will you be here forever?
Never go away?
Never thought things would change
Hold me tight
Please don't say again
That you have to go
A bitter thought I had it all
But I just let it go
Oh, this silence it's so violent
Since you're gone
All my thoughts are with you forever
Until the day we'll be back together
I will be waiting for you
If I had told you
You would have listened
You had stayed
You would be here forever
Never went away
It would never have been the same
All our time would have been in vain
'Cause you had to go
The sweetest thought I had it all
'Cause I did let you go
All our moments keep me warm
When you're gone
All my thoughts are with you forever
Until the day we'll be back together
I will be waiting for you
