Don't Ya

Brett Eldredge

Girl you cut those jeans just right
I know you didn't buy 'em like that
So baby don't even try that
You dance, oh you move yeah
Like there ain't nobody watchin'
But girl you know I'm watchin'Don't lie, you've got it all figured out
That smile has got me spinnin' around
Don't even try actin' like it ain't no thing
'Cause I can see you move a little closer, closer
Girl I gotta get to get to know ya, know ya
Everything about ya makes me want ya, want ya
Know what you're doin' baby don't ya, don't yaYou've been lookin' over here all night
And when I look, you look away
Oh I love the little games you play
Yea I bet, you didn't mean, to brush my hand when you walked by me
Like you didn't mean to drive me crazyDon't lie, you've got it all figured out
That smile, has got me spinnin' around
Don't even try, actin' like it ain't no thing
'Cause I can see you move a little closer, closer
Girl I gotta get to get to know ya, know ya
Everything about ya makes me want ya, want ya
Know what you're doin baby don't ya, don't yaWanna get outta here and let me show ya
How good it would feel to hold ya
Put your pretty little head on my shoulder, oh yeaDon't lie, you've got it all figured out
That smile got me spinnin' around
Don't even try actin' like it ain't no thingNo don't lie, you've got it all figured out
Girl that smile has got me spinnin' around
Don't even try, actin' like it ain't no thing'Cause I can see you move a little closer, closer
Girl I gotta get to get to know ya, know ya
Everything about ya makes me want ya, want ya
Know what you're doin' baby don't ya, don't ya
