

Lamb of God

Marilyn Manson

There was Christ in the metal shell
There was blood on the pavement
The camera will make you God
That's how Jack became sainted If you die when there's no one watchin'
And your ratings drop and you're forgotten
If they kill you on their TV
You're a martyr and a lamb of God Nothin's gonna change
Nothin's gonna change the world There was Lennon and the happy gun
There were words on the pavement
We were lookin' for the lamb of God
We were lookin' for Mark David If you die when there's no one watchin'
And your ratings drop and you're forgotten
If they kill you on their TV
You're a martyr and the lamb of God Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change
Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change the world Took three days for Him to die
The born again to buy the serial rights
Lamb of God have mercy on us
Lamb of God won't you grant us Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change
Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change
Nothin's gonna change the world
Nothin's gonna change the world If you die when there's no one watchin'
And your ratings drop and you're forgotten
If they kill you on their TV
You're a martyr and a lamb of God Nothin's gonna change the world
