Blow Ya Mind

Ruben Studdard

Girl, you been on my mind all day and I been thinking
Of what I was gonna say when you got here
I want you to relax, let your hair down
'Cause tonight is the night for me to blow ya mindIt's time to relax, it's time to unwind
Whatever's on your mind, girl, leave it outside
Tell me your fantasy, girl 'cause I want you to be free to explore
There's so much more if you let meIf you let me blow ya mind tonight
Baby, it'll be okay if you let go with me
Baby, just let me take time control tonight
Take ya to another place, girl
Somewhere that you can't explain, girlI know that you've had your reservations
And your speculations of the things I did in the past
But I wanna clear your mind out, left all those things behind
Now I'm with you girl, I want to make you feel goodSo let your hair down, baby
Take your clothes off
It'll be alright
If you let me, let meIf you let me blow ya mind tonight
Baby, it'll be okay if you let go with me
Baby, just let me take time control tonight
Take ya body to another place, girl
Somewhere that you can't explainNow I want you all over me
Do it on the table, freaking in the shower
Have you in the kitchen, over by the windowLet me play with your body
Starting at your navel all the way to your toes
Girl, I want you to reach your peak, babyI wanna blow ya mindLet me blow ya mind tonight
Take you to a fantasy, somewhere that you've never seen, yeah
Baby, just let me take control tonight
I wanna love ya from the toes to your back to your navelLet me lay with you, let me play with you
Satisfy your every need, let me love on you, baby
Baby, just let me control tonight
