Listen To My Song

Ciara

You want me, I'll be there
Just call me on my phone it takes me away
When you need me I'll be there
Just whisper and I'll grab your voice when I'll be hearingBoy, I'm here with you, you're here with me
Just letting me know you always will be mine
Boy, I'm loving you, you're loving me
Don't hold it back, just let it beSee you ain't never gone on and never gonna leave
And boy you're gonna be right here with me
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
And you ain't gotta never ever want you never gonna cryI will be right here by your side
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
My love will never do you wrong
Now listen to my song, now listen to my song
Boy, listen to my songI gonna give you everything
Giving you my love is my only mission
Promise you I'll never let myAll my kisses, all my hugs
Public affection, that's for some
If you are not a paper, I were not a savior
Even if you went back in the days you had nothing else to
If day is fine, I said so save it 'causeI do it on if you ain't never gone on and never gonna leave
And boy you're gonna be right here with me
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
And you ain't gotta never ever want you never don't cryI will be right here by your side
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
My love will never do you wrong
Now listen to my song, now listen to my song
Hey baby, boy listen to my songNow listen to my song
If you ever out, how I feel about you now
Baby, just listen to my songSee I think we all got it twisted
I got everything but there's something missing
Until I found you, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you boy, you, you, youI do it on if you ain't never gone on and never gonna leave
And boy you're gonna be right here with me
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
You'll always be my baby, baby, baby
And you ain't gotta never ever want you never gonna cryI will be right here by your side
You will be my baby, baby, baby

And my love will never do you wrongJust listen to this song, now listen to my song
Hey baby, boy listen to my song
Boy, listen to my song, boy listen to my song
Boy, listen to my song
