

Don't Call Me Peanut

Bayside

Drink up beautiful, I filled your cup with angst and a heart attack
Cause Ive got so much trapped
And its all because of you
So I figured you might like some back But when I see her Ill tell her
Whats been on my mind all these sleepless night
Shell recite her excuses
Ill put my tail between these legs of mine like I do all the time I cant live my life knowing
Youll be in his arms each time I blink my eyes
I know what goes on behind my back Every night Im afraid Ill never leave
Afraid, Ill never know whats good for me
And now you say that, you say you love me
