Alright

By The Tree

Down here where everything's crazy
The whole world's falling apart
Don't start believing that my love
Will find you, right where you areIt'll be alright tonight
It'll be okayIf the world falls down on you
I'll be there to see you through
Every lonely night
It'll be alrightDown here where everything's changing
There's one thing that always remains
I'll be right here beside you
To guide you each step of the wayIt'll be alright tonight
It'll be okayIf the world falls down on you
I'll be there to see you through
Every lonely night
It'll be alrightAlright, it'll be alright
It'll be alrightDown here where everything's crazy
The whole world's falling apart
Don't start believing that my love
Will find you, right where you areIt'll be alright tonight
It'll be okayIf the world falls down on you
I'll be there to see you through
Every lonely nightIf the world falls down, down on you
I'll be there to see you through
Every lonely night
It'll be alright
