Summer Of Luv

Steve Perry

I know the reason why love has a season
It's summertime
I was walking downtown and I saw her, yeah
The prettiest thing, yes, I saw here, oh
So I said, you know, I'd love to talk to you a while
Oh, oo, ya, ya, she's so lovely, so lovely, I think she loves me
So I told her I think I love you, do you believe I do
Do you now? Do ya?
And maybe you know you could come around after the show
And we could go out and have a cup of coffee or something
Huh, huh, ya think?
Oh, but, ya, ya, ya, she's lovely, so lovely, oh, she loves me

I know the reason, love has a season
It's summertime
Could I be dreaming ?cause seeing is believing
It's you and I and our summer of luv
Oo, ya, ya, ya, she's lovely, so lovely, so lovely
I know the reason love has a reason
It's summertime
Could this be dreaming ?cause seeing is believing
It's you and I and our summer of luv
Oh, please get me to church on time
