

The Shade of Poison Trees

Dashboard Confessional

If you knew what I know, would you try
Before your time has run anew and worn you down?
Would you know what you deserve in your heart?
And if you knew what I knew would you try? Is that time, is that time
To follow just one desire?
Is that time, is that time
To follow your heart's? Dress your wounds, test your strength, face the night
Crave the touch, feel the pain, know the signs
Is there truth in your pain? You decide
If you knew what I know, would you try? Is that time, is that time
To follow just one desire?
Is that time, is that time
To follow your heart's?
