

Rated "U" for Ugly

Zebrahead

Hit me, hit me, hit me with all you got
Just a superficial girl who cares a lot
About attentions that you get they connect the dots
So form a target on your back, take your best shot Who loves you?
Who needs you?
The paint's peeling off the wall
That's it, that's all Who loves you?
Who needs you?
The itch makes your skin crawl
That's it, that's all Head to the wall
Head to the wall Life is starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to the end of your Life starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to an end near you Give me, give me, give me, got no heart to rot
When the scars and insecurities, they hit the spot
And the acceptance that you crave is all for not Left a cross hair on your head, take your best shot Who loves you?
Who needs you?
Always waiting for a call
That's it, that's all Who loves you?
Who needs you?
Sets you up for a fall
That's it, that's all Head to the wall
Head to the wall Life is starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to the end of your Life starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to an end near you You're so ugly with the lights on
Narcissistic girl
You're so ugly with the lights on Narcissistic girl You're so ugly with the lights on
Narcissistic girl
Living in her, it's all about me world Life is starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio

It's sad but true
Coming to the end of yourLife starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to an end near youComing soon to an end near you
