

Forever Is a Long Time

Avantasia

Oh yeah Young is the day
Still it's the same
The same old tomorrow
Colors too bright
So dream in black and white
If you wanna rise from the hollow The future in sight
The past in your head
Nightmare or treason
The father above you as you
Walk through the ashes
Don't you run out of reason
You keep on waiting
For your choice to be made
There ain't no bounty
For the number of passions
You rein in for the love You are defying the devil
Forever this time
But you can't imagine
Forever will drag on a long long time
You are defying salvation
The wait is your crime
Stalemate in virtue we falter Pleasure and pain feel all the same
To the dreamer who's trying to get closer
Strange how it feels in reality
When your fairytale is over
No right or wrong
I just keep going on
And I don't get lost in belief Falter and pray
Keep looking away
I don't wanna see We keep on waiting
For a choice to be made
There ain't no bounty for the passion
We rein in for love Your are defying the devil
Forever this time
But you can't imagine
Forever will drag on a long long time
You are defying salvation
The wait is your crime
Stalemate in virtue we falter

It's gonna take forever Oh - young is the day
Still it's the same
The same old tomorrow
Colors too bright
So dream in black and white
Wanna rise from the hollow You are defying the devil
Forever this time
Forever will drag on
A long long time
