Fun (feat. Bazzi)

Fancy Cars

Yeah
Yeah
Tired eyes and midnight jives
Lost but we know we're found
On the mission with no decision
Feet too far from the ground
And how could it be wrong when it feels right?
Watch us going with the flow, oh
And people always try to live your life
Cause this gets to live it onAll that I know is that I'm out here, just tryina get mine
And I am the one to decides who decides what is wrong or rightWe're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun
Having fun, having fun
We're just having fun, fun
Too much to choose, nothing to lose
High and I won't come down
Blurry visions and bad decisions
But who would remember this now?
And how could it be wrong when it feels right?
Watch us going with the flow, oh
And people always try to live your life
Cause this gets to live it onAll that I know is that I'm out here, just tryina get mine
And I am the one to decides who decides what is wrong or rightWe're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun
Having fun, having fun
We're just having fun, funAll that I know is that I'm out here, just tryina get mine
And I am the one to decides who decides what is wrong or right
We're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun, fun
We're just having fun
Having fun, having fun
We're just having fun, fun
