Euphoria

Sarah Slean

Take me
Love me
Invade the portions of me
That are dark and warm and deep
Hero or zero
I am glad that you are here
So, take your love and take your leaveNow, how will I fall asleep?
I am on to you euphoria
You built the maze
In my lovers face
I am on to you euphoria
This state of graceI could have held him
But, alas, the dawn compelled him to walk into the street
His arms are swinging and maybe he is singing
With those lips that now taste like meHow am I suppose to fall asleep?
I am on to you euphoria
You built the maze on my lovers face
So, I am on to you
Euphoria
I am on to you euphoria
You built the maze on my lovers face
I am on to you euphoria
this state of grace
