

Another Heart

Tremonti

It's a shame
You sold your
Lies before God
What our eyes have seen
Oh have you forgot
Where's your values
Were they all thrown away
Where's the reason
You will suffer today
Today
Today

Hard on the brain
Tear at the walls to find it
Toss it away
Find me another heart
Break the inside
Hurt in a way
You'll like it
Eager to find
Find me another heart

Learn a lesson from the words that you speak
Feigned forgiveness cause the woulds are too deep
The end's a lonely place
And now it is here
Live your final days along with your fear
Your fear
Your fear

It's a shame
Such a shame

Find me another heart
Find
Find me another heart
