Lost

Obituary

We find out, we care for them
The fear's spawn, the fear lies dead
Believe you and come with me
You'll soon know, God destroys livesCall for, my future
In the graves, souls find rest
The search for lives fortune
We find you, we find your remainsWe find out, we care for them
The fear is spawn, fear lies dead
You'll suffer, here we go
We're dead, the sights we're in, in forWhy wage, tortured lives
Through life's, burning sun?
Torture is, torn hearts
Death for, death is for the opposedSet back, you face pain
And fight, wolves pack runYou face pain
You face pain
Your soul just lost time
Lost timeWhy wage, tortured lives
Through life's, burning sun?
Torture is, torn hearts
Death for, death for the opposedSet back, you face pain
And fight, bad wolves run
Death to, all this war of lies
Watch out, your soul just lost the timeYour soul just lost time
Lost timeFor those butchered hearts
Take the fears, squeeze fast
They sign on to refuel
The touch of your face, is sealed
