

Voice of Experience

The Shirelles

I know (I know) I know (I know)
I know (I know) I know (I know)
I know he will never be true; I love him too
Now, don't you kiss him on your very first date
(Listen to the voice of experience)
Girl, now, don't you kiss him till you make him wait
(Listen to the voice of experience)
Well now, too quickly, too quickly did I give him my heart
& just as quickly, he tore my heart apart
Oh yes he did
I think you ought to take a second look
(Listen to the voice of experience)
I know this lover like an open book
(Listen to the voice of experience)
(Listen to the voice of experience)
Believe it, too quickly, too quickly did I give him my heart
& just as quickly, he tore my heart apart
Mmm, he did
(Listen to the voice of experience)
(Listen to the voice of experience)
Well now, too quickly, too quickly did I give him my heart
& just as quickly, he tore my heart apart
Oh yes he did
