

Walking Tall

The Eliminators

It's only a matter of time
Before you loose it
-and I once believed in fireAnd tear me up!
Something burns inside of meYou mark my words, the game is up
And why did you have to show
That it's just a grand illusion?
Why did you ever let me go?
-i'm asking you!'Cause I'm walking tall,
Marching down this shattered road
I've learned, pain means alive
And I'm slowly breaking through
-without you!So come clench your fist 'round my heart
And leave me bleeding
It's already ripped to pieces
-blackened on the ground!You gave me scars that never heal
Oh, why did you hurt me so?
You pathetic little person...
Just one more thing before you go,
-i'm telling you...'Cause I'm walking tall,
Marching down this shattered road
I've learned, pain means alive
And I'm slowly breaking through
-without you!'Cause I'm walking tall,
Marching down this shattered road
I've learned, pain means alive
And I'm slowly breaking through
-without you!
