

Sorry

Justin Guarini

All this time it's been on my mind
But I never said it
Went along like I did no wrong
But now I regret it Should've probably listened more
Held your hand and opened doors
I've been taking you for granted
But I swear I never meant it (Wanted many times to apologize)
But it often went unsaid
(Got to figure out how to tell you now)
What's been going through my head But I'm worried if I don't you'll walk away
Sorry not an easy word to say
And there's just no way that I can live
Unless I know that you'll forgive
Sorry baby, I'm so, so sorry Girl, I'm hoping it's not too late I cross my fingers
Cross my heart I'm about to change my ways
Starting with this one word Promise I'm gonna stay around
No more hanging out
Let's reunite I'll make it right
'Cuz I need you in my life Sorry not an easy word to say
But I'm worried if I don't you'll walk away
And there's just no way that I can live
Unless I know that you'll forgive
Sorry baby, I'm so, so sorry Sorry for the times I didn't realize
That holding back my feelings brought tears to your eyes
Sorry for the times I didn't understand
A simple word that you deserved
Could make me a better man Sorry not an easy word to say
But I'm worried if I don't you'll walk away
And there's just no way that I can live
Unless I know that you'll forgive
Sorry now baby, I'm so, so Sorry not an easy word to say
But I'm worried if I don't you'll walk away
And there's just no way that I can live
Unless I know that you'll forgive
Sorry baby, I'm so, so Sorry not an easy word to say
But I'm worried if I don't you'll walk away
And there's just no way that I can live
Unless I know that you'll forgive
Sorry baby, I'm so, so sorry
