Why Me?

Irene Cara

Life felt so right
I was drowned in your light
With the world so in tune 'til you made me out for a fool.
Left with nothing to do can't forget about you
With my heart in my hands pack my bags leave the memories with yc
You gave me nothing but misery
I found so much moreYou used me oh
so helplessly don't want your sympathyWhy me? Why me? Why me when I was the one Who could set your heart free?
Why me? Why me? Why me?
You took all the love I gave up selfishly. - Why me?
Trapped in your space never thought I could face Going one step beyond when I knew deep inside I was strong.
Now I know what it takes can't repeat the mistakes When new love comes along I'll give me what I'll call my own.
You gave me nothing but misery
I found so much more
Why me? Why me? Why me
when I was the one Who could set your heart free? Why me? Why me? Why me? . . .
