

Queen of Hearts

Lauren Alaina

Let's play it straight no need to wait
Just place your bet on me
You never know what ace you got
Half hiding up your sleeve
Before you make your next move
Honey, you better think it through
Love's a game but you choose
So don't play it like a fool 'Cause I'm right here in the palm of your hand
Right now, baby go all in
Slow down before you lose your chance to win
Don't throw it all away
You underestimate what you got
Love is worth the wait take a shot
Don't be so quick to fold your cards
You just might have a Queen of Hearts Even though I think your poker face is kinda cute
Just let it go, 'cause we both know
You can't hide the truth
Boy you might look tough
But I wanna know the real you
And yeah I'm calling your bluff
And I can see right through 'Cause I'm right here in the palm of your hand
Right now, baby go all in
Slow down before you lose your chance to win
Don't throw it all away
You underestimate what you got
Love is worth the wait take a shot
Don't be so quick to fold your cards
You just might have a Queen of Hearts Give in to me
Don't you wanna be
Don't you wanna be my don't you wanna be my
Don't you wanna be my king
Wanna be my king wanna be my king 'Cause I'm right here in the palm of your hand
Baby, go all in
Before you lose your chance to win
Don't you wanna win? 'Cause I'm right here in the palm of your hand
Right now, baby go all in
Slow down before you lose your chance to win
Don't throw it all away
You underestimate what you got

Love is worth the wait take a shot
Don't be so quick to fold your cards
You just might have a Queen of Hearts You just might have a Queen of Hearts
You just might have
