Take A Ride

The Ringles

Stay low, arrows, echoes of heroes
Follow their go, borrow halos
Climb high, you might die
Or stick around to see the sights
Take this, drink that
Things will start to look right
Get lost in the cost
Living in the deep frost
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Can you feel it when it's in the night
I take it in with the morning light
Everyday underneath the sky
Sing along with the lullaby
Can you feel it when we step outside
In the sun standing in the tide
It's a shame when I'm in the game
I forget about why I came
Hush, hush, can I stop the rush
Hush, hush, I'm stuck in the crush
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Take a ride from this life
Live slow, die old
Live slow, die old
Live slow, die old
