

Song For the Irrational

Matt Wertz

You say you want something rational
You say you need the cold hard facts
Do you realize
How far you've strayed from truth
In your quest for
Your rational proof
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Cause you say you want something rational
And you say you need miraculous signs
Excuse me if i'm the one who's been mistaken here
But your logic seems to be a bit unclear
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Has what I've shown slipped past your oh so blurred eyes
Has my soft touch not calmed those oh so vicious lies
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
