Stay Away

Phoebe Snow

I could have should have maybe I would have not loved if you had stayed away.
Forget it, I'll bet it, doesn't even get at you now.
Why didn't you stay away
from me and my fragile heart.
I knew you were playing right from the start.
Remember a lover is something to treasure.
Stay away, stay away from me.You're wrong to want to keep coming on to me baby,
why don't you stay away.
'Cause I'm getting strong, I don't need to belong to now,
I want you to stay away
from me and my troubled mind.
I won't let you turn it around this time.
Some I long to lie down beside you,
stay away, stay away from me.Stay, stay, stay away.
I want you to stay away. (repeated to fadeout)
