

61 Seconds

The Outfield

Without a word I'd know what to say
If you stared at me
My eyes would refuse to stray 61 seconds is all it takes
For the 9 to 5 man to be more than one minute late
There's a clock on the wall, a mirror reflecting it all
Just an imageless photograph To wake up not knowing where I am today
I don't drive the same car
I don't live the same way 61 seconds is all it takes
For the 9 to 5 man to be more than one minute late
There's a clock on the wall
A mirror reflecting it all, just an imageless photograph There's a space in a frame
Can you imagine a man with no name?
I can, I can, I can 61 seconds is all it takes
For the 9 to 5 man to be more than one minute late
There's a clock on the wall, a mirror reflecting it all
Just an imageless photograph There's a space in a frame
Can you imagine a man with no name?
I can, I can, I can
