

Maybe Just Today (Remastered)

Bobby Vee

Baby I don't need to know who your big love was yesterday
Oh and there's no way to tell if you and I are gonna make it all the way
 'Cause what is past is past
 And what will last, girl, it's gonna last
 All that matters is today and tomorrow
Baby, maybe maybe just todayThe times they are a-changin', girl, with ever-quickenin' speed
 Ah but today I wanna give you all the lovin' left and that you need
 'Cause what is done is done
 And what's to come, mmm baby, let it come
 All that matters is today and tomorrow
Baby, maybe maybe just todayDon't be afraid to live for the moment
 Trust me and love me this way
 If you keep lookin' back or thinkin' ahead
 Baby, we're gonna miss out on today
 'Cause what is past is past
 And what will last, girl, it's gonna last
 All that matters is today and tomorrow
Baby, maybe maybe just todayAll that matters is today and tomorrow
 Baby, maybe maybe just today
