Lost Peace

Karibow

Your look won't match your sound
when the day is done
and your heart can't find salvation.

I can never stay around feeling like a fragment
and we're parts without relation.

Lost peace, love bleeds
And you rest in my desire!
Pause, freeze,I'm incomplete
but I rest in your desire!

I'm like the waves,
I'm like the seasons.
I'm coming true
before I fall apart.

I'll take your hands
when you are freezing
but I will never let you touch my heart.

Lost peace...
