

The Lies That I Believe

Thornley

Around it comes and 'round it goes
Around it swims, around my head
All of us are lonely souls
And all of us get left for dead
How come I always try to cross
Even though I know the bridge is burning?
How come I take it when I know that you fake it?
Tell myself I'm learning
The lies that I believe are simple
The lies that I believe are true
The lies that I believe are so beautiful
The lies that I believe are true
All the flings and all the flaws
Let me cling to someone's clause
All of us are lonely souls
And all of us mend broken laws
How come I always try to cross
Even though I know the bridge is burning?
How come I take it when I know that you fake it?
I tell myself I'm learning
The lies that I believe are useful
The lies that I believe are true
The lies that I believe are so beautiful
The lies that I believe are true
Everyone uses, everyone abuses
Nobody take the blame
Everyone uses, everyone abuses
Ain't it such a shame
The lies that I believe are simple
The lies that I believe are true
The lies that I believe are so beautiful
The lies that I believe are true
