Wreck You

Kristin Chenoweth

I wanna take up all your time
And every thought that's on your mind
Tonight when you sleep
I wanna know you're dreamin' only of meI want my kiss on your lips
And my touch on your fingertips
And I gotta know they'll be no other lover
I want you to think of me and nothing else but meI wanna be the one who wrecks you and messes you up
I wanna leave you feelin' breathless, needing only my touch
I wanna make you weak and bring you to your knees
I, I wanna wreck youI wanna take your breath away
And make it so you can't think straight
And I wanna do
All the things no one's done to youI wanna spin your head around
And turn your whole world upside down
And I wanna prove you'll need no other lover
I want you to think of me and nothing else but meI wanna be the one who wrecks you and messes you up
I wanna leave you feelin' breathless, needing only my touch
I wanna make you weak and bring you to your knees
I, I wanna wreck youI'll be the reason for your sleepless nights
I'll twist you up
I'll make you weak inside
I'll be the only thing on your mindI wanna be the one who wrecks you and messes you up
I wanna leave you feelin' breathless, needing only my touch
I wanna leave you weak and bring you to your knees
I, I wanna wreck youI wanna be the one who wrecks you and messes you up
I wanna leave you feelin' breathless, needing only my touch
I wanna make you weak and bring you to your knees
I, I wanna wreck you, I wanna wreck you, I wanna wreck you
