It Wouldn't Have Made Any Difference

Todd Rundgren

Do you remember the last time I said

If I ever thought of lying
I'd rather think of dying instead

And maybe you remember the last time you called meTo say we were through

How it took a million tears

Just to prove they all were for you

But those days are through Cause it wouldn't have made any difference

If you loved me, how could you love me

When it wouldn't really make any difference

If you really loved me, you just didn't love me'Cause I know of hundreds of times I could be In the most unfaithful arms, that you always picture me

And maybe you remember that

Though I can't always show proof I was trueNo one else could change my mind

Or stop me coming home to you

But those days are through Cause it wouldn't have made any difference

If you loved me, how could you love me

When it wouldn't really make any difference

If you really loved me, you just didn't love meEnough to believe me

Enough to believe me

Enough not to leave me

Enough not to leave meEnough not to look for a reason

To be unhappy with me

And make me regret ever wanting you

But those days are through Cause it wouldn't have made any difference

If you loved me, how could you love me

When it wouldn't really make any difference

If you really loved me, you just did not love me'Cause it wouldn't have made any difference

If you loved me, how could you love me

When it wouldn't really make any difference

If you really loved me, you just did not love me
