

Shake the Cage

Morning Parade

Berate and sing songs of ignorance
A heart so filled up with insolence
Carefree and unsung, your cross to bear
Like a wasp in a jar, just gasping for air
You shake the cage...
The cage... You shake the cage...
The cage... Where once your words fell upon your plate
Through space and through time they permeate
We want to live a life less ordinary now
We want to take a bite and taste the cherry now
Your tongue longs for the bittersweet
Your tongue
Shake the cage...
The cage... You shake the cage...
The cage... Shake the cage...
The cage... Shake the cage...
(Your tongue longs for the bittersweet)
The cage...
Sweet your tongue
Long... Long...
Your tongue longs for the bittersweet your tongue
