

Good As My Word

All

lyrics by stephen egerton and bill stevenson music by stephen egerton ain't it funny everybody thinks that i'm a slime and i've never done much of anything to deserve it it's a wonder i can function feels like i'm on trial i need to set things straight so you'll know you can trust me got me nothing to call my own always looking never finding always lying never trying always got me nowhere no matter what you've heard i'm just as good as my word don't judge me on the blown up rumours that you overheard i'm just as good as my word this is a different time and place and you're a different girl no matter what you heard it shows that you don't know heard a story not to worry you know everyone can do both good and evil say you love me thinking of me it don't make much sense to say those things to me when you don't even trust me always lying never trying always looking never finding got me nothing to call my own always got me nowhere i'm just as good as my word no matter what you've heard i'm just as good as my word don't judge me on the blown up rumors that you overheard this is a different time and place and you're a different girl no matter what you heard this is now
