

Oblivion

Rose Cora Perry

V1: Silence it seems helps you forget about things

I'm caught in a dream on the cusp of oblivion V2: Torturing me, How could I be so naïve?

I fell so deep into your web, your web of delusions, I was so deluded that I lost a piece of... Chorus: Myself, myself (I let go of the one thing that I trusted),

Myself, myself (I'm not at home, I've become maladjusted) V3: Regretfully,

I forgot how to see,

I mistook thee for a trick or another cheap thrill. V4: I've forgiven thee for trespassing me,

I can now see that my feelings, my feelings were corrupt so haunted by my past that I lost a piece of... V5: Silence it seems helped me forget about things

Got caught in a dream that was more like a nightmare V6; Torturing me, How could I've been so naïve?

I feel so deep Into a web of my own delusions

I was so confused that I lost a piece of... Outro: I was held back by the past that was haunting

I was too scared to step for fear of falling

You were the voice in my head that I reached for

But you couldn't save me, no one could save me
