

Dog

John Lydon

Ever been alone, ever been alone
As we stand we are innocent dog
    You can look to the future
When your confidentWhat does a red herring mean?
    Dont know, dont know
    How stable is smoke screen?
Dont know, dont knowYou ever seen a snow job in the snow?
    No, oh no
    Where does a false trail go?
    Dont know, dont knowDog
    You can look to the future
When your confidentNothing has an answer and thats a fact
    And all religions are the devil's pacts
    And one step forward is two steps back
And you know and I know and thats a factAnd as we stand, we are innocent
    Adam and Eve are innocent
    And all mankind is innocent
We can all do without judgmentAnd all confusion is confident
    You can look to the future
When your confidentI, I, I, I, I
    Nothing has an answer
    And thats a factI am innocent
    Good doggie, dog
    Im in my element
