Devastation

Devastation

Waiting for disaster, blackness in the night
I roam the world to hear the cry
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
2000 brings the untimely end of all living things, yeahThe four horsemen have started their ride
Can you see them in the sky?
Glaring down at the ground, smile on their face
As they commence the end of the human raceTotal devastation
Prepare yourself for death
This world's insane, noStart your fields afire, watching them burn
Tomorrow will be another world's turn
To win is the end to be a part of Judgment Day
We should have listened to what Christ had to sayTotal devastation
Prepare yourself for death
This world's insane
What do you say?We all have our chances of living in peace
Now I'm afraid you're in too deep
What can you do when you're a fool
It all goes this way
You should have listened to what Christ had to sayTotal devastation
Prepare yourself to die
This world's insane, noNo no no no
This world's insane
Oh yeah, yeah
No no no
Stop it, no
