

Stones Thrown

Wovenwar

All the headlines read of tragedies
Force fed to fuel the hate
All the headlines read of tragedies
Stones thrown to separate
So wake up, wake up
A stone thrown in to separate
So wake up All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all
All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all
If the mainstream's reach is what you preach
Whose pockets are you filling?
If the mainstream's reach is what you teach
Whose pockets are you filling?
So wake up, wake up
A stone thrown in to separate All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all
All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all Further and further they divide us and conquer
Wake up and stand up, we're in this together Wake up
All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all
All talk is cheap
When from the screen
But we believe it all
But we believe it all
