

Happy Without You

Caroline's Spine

i remember thinking things would never change the way it was, and how it was to remain i haven't cried in a while but i haven't forgotten the pain in my heart and after so long you finally called i remember thinking things would never change the way it was, then how it was to be alone i should have know bettern then that i couldn't handle you on my own cause i broke your heart and even thought i'm glad you finally called i'm never ever gonna go back i'm happy here without you i'm never ever gonna go back i'm happy here without you still i remember thinking things would never change
but i haven't forgotten your pain
and even though i'm glad we finally talked i'm never ever gonna go back
i'm happy here without you i remember thinking things would never change...
