

Iieee

Tori Amos

With your E's and your ease
And I do one more
Need a lip gloss boost
In your America Is it God's? Is it yours?
Sweet saliva
With your E's and your ease
And I do one more I know we're dying
And there's no sign of a parachute
We scream in cathedrals
Why can't it be beautiful?
Why does there gotta be a s-s-sacrifice?
Gotta be a s-s-sacrifice Just say, "Yes, you little arsonist"
You're so sure you can save
Every hair on my chest
Just say, "Yes, you little arsonist" With your E's and your ease
And I do one more
With your E's and your ease
And I do one more Well, I know we're dying
And there's no sign of a parachute
In this chapel, little chapel of love
Can't we get a little grace
And some elegance So, we scream in cathedrals
Why can't it be beautiful?
Why does there gotta be a s-s-sacrifice?
Gotta be a sacrifice, gotta be a s-s-sacrifice
