Surreal

The Innocence Mission

Don't fire your gun at the pressure, it's only surreal
Don't heed the crowd noise and laughter, they're only surreal
This is a test for discovering who really loves you
The answers will come soon enoughYou hold my heart and your fingers are shaking, don't drop it
Fumbling in darkness, the darkness is only surreal
I know that there is a light in here somewhere
Do you see it? You'll have to turn it onCan you see it, now? Can you see it?
Can you see it, now? It's only surreal, it's only surreal
I know that there is a light in here somewhere
Do you see it? You'll have to turn it on, you'll have to turn it on Oh, oh you'll have to turn it on, can you turn it on?
