Hundred Reasons

Please lift the weight off us
Destroy and leave it all behind
Pour your hands and make believe
So we could plot the course divineMake your matchstick man so proud
Yet all I felt was less
You overcompensate
You always hesitateYou open up, you're cased in silence
You open up, you're cased in silence
You open up, you're cased in silencePlease lift the weight off us
Destroy and leave it all behind
No, no, no, no
