This Is Goodbye

Lillix

This is my goodbye
This is my goodbye
This is my goodbye
But please don't fade away
I don't exist, I can't be you
Each day's a new failure
Every trial is permissive
Every step I gain
I only fall back sitting
This is my goodbye
But please don't try to stop me
There's nothing left
There is nothing left
It's over, please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go
It's my choice so please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go
I have no mercy
This place is overwhelming
Once again I could last
I see no way to be free
I search for the answers
Is there no solution?
I realize my reflection
My reflection is the demon
It's over, please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go
It's my choice so please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go
It's my blasphemy
Hoping not to waste
Each day, it's a nightmare
Sleep in freedom
You gave
But it was not enough
You say it was not enough
It was never enough
It's over, please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go

It's my choice so please lay me to rest
Forgive me, let me go
