Goodbye

Earshot

Hollow seem the stars in the sky
Where my dreams they seem to follow
Shadows in the walls of my mind
And these thoughts that seem so shallowI can't make sense of all this
Delivered to confusion from bliss
Suffered so long and I miss
Feeling aliveNo, I'm not scared to say goodbye, I've had enough
Of your sick and twisted lies
And your cold and heartless words
When you're slowly coming to
No, I won't be with you
Do you feel the way I feel?
Do you feel me movin' on?Again I find, I'm searching for a place to run and hide
Somewhere to rest my mind
A moment to feel myself again and never sayI can't make sense of all this
Delivered to confusion from bliss
Suffered so long and I miss
Feeling aliveNo, I'm not scared to say goodbye, I've had enough
Of your sick and twisted lies
And your cold and heartless words
When you're slowly coming to
No, I won't be with you
Do you feel the way I feel?
Do you feel me movin' on?I'm okay now without you
Time to finally turn the page
So hurt and I won't forgive what you did to me?
I can hardly breatheNo, I'm not scared to say goodbye, I've had enough
Of your sick and twisted lies
And your cold and heartless words
When you're slowly coming to
No, I won't be with you
Do you feel the way I feel?
Do you feel me movin' on?
