

Young Blood (7" Edit)

UFO

Young blood
Where you going now?
Young blood
Where you going now? I didn't mind it when you left me, honey
But I miss you, ain't it the truth?
I haven't give up hanging on the phone
But all I hear is the proof One more night
And I'm thinking what's going wrong
You say you love me
But does love take this long? You paint a picture, you tell a story
Oh, the tangled web that you leave
I hear the whispers, the candid talking
And I don't know what to believe One more night
And I'm thinking what's going wrong
You say you love me
But does love take this long? Where do all these dreams have broken?
Right or left, it's stolen
Stop your running away Young blood, ooh, tell me
Where you going now?
Young blood, ooh, tell me
Where you going now? It's never, never, nothing's forever
Turning gold in our hands
There's no magic, it all seems tragic
'Cause it's slipped through our fingers like sand One more night
And I'm thinking what's going wrong
You say you love me
But does love take this long? Where do all these dreams have broken?
Stop your running away Where do all these dreams have broken?
Stop your running away Run, run, running away
