Luna

Glass House Point

Luna you're hanging so low
On this summer night.
The ocean is breaking us slow
In spite of your might.
Oh Luna
Don't you cry.

Can you wait?
Wait for me awhile
Can you wait?
Wait for me awhile

And Please, watch over me
Watch over me.
Luna, watch over me
Watch over me.

The harbor sleeps silent tonight
With your beauty's blight.
The sun has buried his light
He can't bear the sight
Of us Luna
Oh Luna

Will you wait?
Wait for me awhile
Will you wait?
Wait for me awhile

And Please, watch over me
Watch over me
Luna, watch over me
Watch over me.

And please! Watch over me!
Watch over me!
Luna, watch over me
Watch over me.
Luna, watch over me
Watch over me.

Luna, watch over me
Watch over me.
