Princess

Glasseater

why do you pester me with your longing to leave i open the door
rush out like a bolt what have i done to cause you to leave?
i rush to the door and you're not there walk back to my seat
i hear a sound of hope it's you knocking at my door oh princess please come back to me for all i long is to be with you
i rush to the door and you're now there
walk back to my seat
we reign forevermore
