

Why (feat. Soko)

Rooney

i've only driven a hundred miles since you've gone and i've only given my energy away when i meet a newbie i slowly crack and spill the past i realize this is phony but there is so much love why? try? the suits, they tried to claim that everything he won was theirs but mother read the files and saved the name he shed why?
why? try? because i can't go on without you since you've passed away when i'm turning japanese i always think you're mad at me but i am no conformist i just like to free my troops like to free my troops
why?
why? try? cause i can't go on without you
