Morning Light

Smile Empty Soul

All the pain brings me down again I've fallen to the floor
Drag myself thru the dirt again I'm heading for the door
I know it's there on the other side the moon is setting slow
Use the best of my will to fight this feelings got to go

[Chorus]
In the morning light I'll start again with open eyes
And I feel alright the pain is gone, I'm still alive

Try to stay as clean as possible
The dirt just wont come off
Pull myself to the window sill
See how much time I've lost
Dwelling on the mistakes I've made
My soul has paid the price
Times are hard in the perma fade
I never see things right

[Chorus]

Is my soul sposed to blee, its happening again
And I'm feelin so lost without you
It's getting hard to see, I hope it's not the end
Cause I need help to find the answer

In the morning light I'll start again with open eyes
And I feel alright the pain is gone, I'm still alive
Still alive
Still alive
