Try not to think about it But you remind That we are heading in the wrong direction You make me sick and tired No never learn You put yourself on top and that just makes me Slip and slide and wish my heart away Come a time when I don't feel like crawling I try to do right until my heart breaks In need of repair, it won't be you I'm calling Try to take me down I'll be right up 'cause you aim too low And I've had enough Always been top rated You think you can change it? Think that you can change it? Top top top rated Now there's no walking round it Your attitude

Keep barking at the top but I'm an underdog I'm quitting, sick and tired No crown in your empire DIY pedestals are just what makes me Slip and slide and see my color fade Come a time when I can put no more in I try to do right until my heart breaks In need of repair, it won't be you I'm calling Try to take me down I'll be right up 'cause you aim too low And I've had enough Always been top rated You think you can change it? Think that you can change it? Top top top rated Try to take me down I'll be right up

'cause you aim too low And I've had enough
