

Adventure Kids

Teen Men

Verse 1:

Yeah, I lost my train of thought,
Let's pick up where we left it all,
I wanna move and I try to convince my feet again,
I wanna ride down another empty street again

Chorus:
We might have to lose control
Go places we don't wanna go
'Cause, I wanna feel and I try to convince my heart again
I wanna beat my chest and try to make it start again

Verse 2:
We might need to disappear
But we'll leave a part of us here
There's nothing we can lose that we won't ever need again
But there's nothing we can do that we cannot repeat again

Verse 3:
We want what we haven't seen
We need a discovery
There's nothing you can hide that we are not prepared to find
There's nothing big enough for you to ever get behind

Bridge:
It's hard to know what I'm falling for
I realize now
if it's there anymore
Oh, I'm moving on, yeah

Verse 4:
I lost my train of thought
Trying to figure out what we got
I wanna move and I try to convince my feet again
I wanna ride down another empty street again

Chorus:
I might have to lose control
I might need to let you go cause
I wanna feel and i try to convince my heart again
I wanna beat my chest and try to make it start again
