

Just a Glimpse

Rend Collective

Breath of God, will You breathe on me like a hurricane?
Fill the sails of my heart once more like a rushing wind
Flame of God, will You spark something in my soul again
If we are embers, then surely You're the oxygen
You're my oxygen Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You
Fills my heartbeat off all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord

Light of God, will You shine through me in my brokenness?
Raise a torch, burn a path for me through the wilderness
Voice of God, will you call me and send Your radiance
Cuz' we are sinners, but surely You're the saving grace
You're my saving grace Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You
Fills my heartbeat off all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord I can't do this without You
You're my fire, you're my fire
I can't do this without You Lord
I am reaching out for You
My desire, my desire
I am reaching out for You Lord
I can't do this without You
You're my fire, you're my fire
I can't do this without You Lord
I am reaching out for You
My desire, my desire
I am reaching out for You Lord Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You

Fills my heartbeat off all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord Invade my life
